

NEGRO SHOTS WHITE MAN.

A Lynching Is Rumored in Case Victim Dies.

Dallas, Ga., Jan. 16.—Joe Arnold, son of F. P. Arnold, of Brownsville, a prosperous farmer and highly respectable citizen, was shot by Jeff Duncan, a negro, at Lost Mountain, 9 miles from here, just over the line of Cobb county.

Arnold was manager of Judge A. L. Bartlett's store at that place and was a very prominent young man of that section, both in a business and social way.

It is said two negroes walked into the store drunk and begun a disturbance which resulted in the shooting of the proprietor by one of the negroes.

The ball took effect in the breast of Arnold and grave fears are entertained of Arnold's recovery.

The negro escaped but a party of men are ready to take the negro and lynch him, it is rumored, in case the young man dies.

This makes the second shooting affair in almost the same section in less than one month, the former victim being killed instantly.

BURNED TO DEATH.

Aged Woman Meets Tragic End in Her Home.

Columbus, Ga., Jan. 16.—Miss Ayla Harper, aged 75 years, was burned to death in a fire which destroyed her home at the foot of Pine mountain, a few miles from Chipley, Ga., information of which has been received here.

Miss Harper lived alone and a Mr. Chambers, who rented her farm, went to her home daily to attend any wants that she might have. When he arrived in sight of her home on Monday morning he saw that it was in flames, and the roof had fallen in by the time he reached it.

The charred remains of the unfortunate woman were found in the ruins.

It is stated that the deceased left a will in which she bequeathed her property to the Methodist and Baptist churches, one-half to each, although she was not a member of either one.

Do Not Suppress a Cough.

When you have a cough do not try to suppress it, but remove the cause. The cough is only a symptom of some disease, and that disease is what you should cure, then the cough will stop of itself. The most common cause of coughing is a cold. Anodynes will promptly suppress the cough, and preparations containing chloroform, opium, etc., are used for that purpose, but they do not cure the cold. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy on the other hand does not suppress the cough, but relieves it by removing from the throat and lungs the mucus which obstructs the breathing and allaying the irritation and tickling in the throat. It also opens the secretions and effectually and permanently cures the cold as well as the cough. For sale by all druggists.

Turpentine Operators Organize.

Valdosta, Ga., Jan. 16.—The turpentine operators in the section from Tifton to Jasper, Fla., and from Waycross to Thomasville, met at the Valdes hotel in this city and perfected the organization of the South Georgia Turpentine Operators' association. Five hundred dollars was subscribed at the meeting for furthering the interests of the association. A number of reports were read by members from the different sections, which indicate that the box cut will not be as large as was thought several weeks ago, due mainly to the scarcity of labor.

Found a Cure for Indigestion.

I use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets for indigestion and find that they suit my case better than any dyspepsia remedy I have ever tried and I have used many different remedies. I am nearly fifty-one years of age and have suffered a great deal from indigestion. I can eat almost anything I want to now.—Geo. W. Emory, Rock Mills, Ala. For sale by all druggists.

Charged with Raising Money Orders.

Knoxville, Tenn., Jan. 16.—James Farr and Horace B. Hassey are in the custody of the United States authorities on the charge of raising mail orders and will be tried here in March. Farr is in the local jail and Hassey at Buffalo, N. Y. Postoffice Inspector Keyes, who worked up the case, said both men confessed to working Knoxville merchants.

Pleasant and Most Effective.

T. J. Chambers, Editor Vindicator, Liberty, Texas, writes Dec. 23, 1902: "With pleasure and unsolicited by you, I bear testimony to the curative power of Ballard's Horehound Syrup. I have used it in my family and can cheerfully affirm it is the most effective and pleasant remedy for coughs and colds I have ever used." 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Tired of Being Fired.

Peter was a good workman, but he would go on sprees. His employer was lenient, but when Peter turned up after having been absent for a couple of days without leave he discharged him. But Peter did not take his discharge seriously and went back to work as usual. Again he went on a spree, and again he was discharged and taken back. These little escapades had been repeated four or five times within a couple of years, when Peter walked into the shop one morning looking much the worse for his celebration. "See here," said the employer, "you are discharged." "Look here," said Peter, "I am tired of this. If I am fired again I'll quit the job." And he went on about his work and has not been "fired" since.—Philadelphia Record.

Some London Streets.

In some of the older and narrower streets and alleys of London may be seen at each end two upright posts. At first it might be supposed that they served no more useful purpose than affording material for children to swing on. But they are used to indicate that the streets which are guarded by the posts are closed to wheeled traffic. Some of the thoroughfares in the poorer parts of London are so narrow that a large vehicle would do serious damage if it were driven along them, and as they are generally short cuts would be much used were they not protected.

Doing One's Duty.

Let us do our duty in our shop or our kitchen, the market, the street, the office, the school, the home, just as faithfully as if we stood in the front rank of some great battle and we knew that victory for mankind depended on our bravery, strength and skill. When we do that the humblest of us will be serving in that great army which achieves the welfare of the world.—Theodore Parker.
